

Which Stainless Steel Cable Tie is Right for My Application?

With a reputation for exceptional quality products, Panduit® offers a comprehensive selection of stainless steel cable tie solutions for a wide range of applications. Our premium grade offering is designed to accommodate a variety of industry standards and is suitable for OEM as well as demanding MRO environments. The StrongHold™ Contractor Grade Products offer an economical assortment of Stainless Steel Cable Ties for general purpose applications.

	StrongHold™ Stainless Steel (Contractor Grade)	Pan-Steel® (Premium Grade)
 Application Environments	66+ Part Numbers Suitable for the following verticals: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chemical Plants and Refineries • Industrial Construction • Mining • Oil and Gas • MRO • Shipbuilding • General Applications requiring Cable Management 	300+ Part Numbers <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Highly engineered for all markets plus OEM and EPC • Specifiable for industrial and harsh environment applications • Wide range of tool options available including manual, battery powered and pneumatic
 Product Offering	Materials/Environment: IMLTs: Available in AISI 304 stainless steel for general purpose applications and AISI 316L stainless steel for the most corrosive environments IMLTFCs: Epoxy polyester coating available in black only Made in China with non-DFARS Steel Tie Construction (Cross-Sectional Area) Available in standard and heavy Loop Tensile Strength: 100 to 200 Lbs. (445 to 890N)	Materials/Environment: MLTs: Available in AISI 304 stainless steel for general purpose applications and AISI 316 stainless steel for the most corrosive environments MLTFCs: TGIC polyester coating available in multiple colors Made in both USA and China with DFARS Steel Tie Construction (Cross-Sectional Area) Available in standard, light heavy, heavy, extra heavy and super heavy Loop Tensile Strength: 100 to 450 Lbs. (445 to 2000N)
 Product Availability	Available on request 8-10 week lead time	Stocked in Panduit warehouse
 Application Support	—	✓
 Pricing	Value Price Model	Standard Price Model